COURTROOM 4 – 17TH FLOOR
SPECIAL MASTER, DANIEL GARRIE, ESQ.

SCHEDULING ORDER RE: NAMED
PLAINTIFF DATA COLD STORAGE
ISSUES

2 1. Pursuant to the Special Master's Amended Order Regarding Production of Named Plaintiff
3 Data, the parties each submitted a list of 250 hive tables to be searched for Named Plaintiff data and
4 Facebook submitted a spreadsheet estimating the amount of data in cold storage for each of the tables
5 that contain data in cold storage. The Special Master reviewed the tables and issues the following
6 scheduling order pursuant to the Amended Order Regarding Production of Named Plaintiff Data.

7
8 2. No later than August 25, 2022, the parties are to meet and confer and each submit a
9 proposed process for searching Hive data in cold storage from the list of Hive tables identified by the 10 parties. The proposals are to include explanations as to why such proposals are appropriate and 11 proportional to the needs of the case.

12 3. The proposals are not to exceed three pages single spaced, exclusive of exhibits.

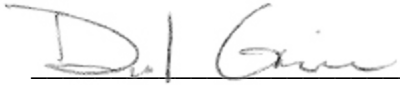

13 4. Pursuant to the Amended Order Regarding Production of Named Plaintiff Data, Facebook is 14 to search data in warm storage in the 500 Hive tables for data associated with the Named Plaintiffs and
15 produce such data on a rolling weekly basis. The first warm storage Hive table production is to be made
16 no later than August 26, 2022 at 12:00 PM PT and the warm storage Hive table production is to be
17 completed no later than September 6, 2022. Facebook is to post to JAMS Access an update on the size
18 of the warm storage Hive table production along with each week's production.

19
20 5. No later than September 13, 2022, Facebook is to determine what percentage of the warm
21 storage Hive data has not been produced from other sources and submit a statement to this effect.

22 6. The hearing regarding outstanding Hive production issues is scheduled to take place on 23 September 15, 2022 at 3:00 PM PT via ZOOM videoconferencing.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
